

Denis has almost thirty years experience in accounting, taxation and financial services. He also has 4 years experience as a Partner with a Taxation Specialist Firm, 15 years experience as the Queensland Managing Partner of an international accounting firm of which he was also the National Chairman for his last three years, and more recently as a founding Partner with Merrotts.

He holds a Bachelor of Business Degree from the Queensland University of Technology. He is a Fellow Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, a Fellow Member of the Taxation Institute of Australia, a Fellow Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and is a member of several other professional organisations.

Denis also has considerable experience in management and organisational structures while engaged in the marketing headquarters of an international computer company in London. He provides to his clients valuable commercial experience in large organisational matters pertaining to corporate development, administration, and corporate budgeting.

A significant portion of his effort is directed to strategic issues with clients, with planning and implementation being key features of his work. Examples of assignments include business consolidation activities, expansion planning and diversifying into areas of compatibility using existing business requirements and skills.

In recent years he has been heavily involved in strategic development issues, property, taxation product development, structuring and management strategy for clients. He is also actively involved in advising on property development and property syndication.

Denis has a wide range of profitable clients who actively seek his advice and whom he assists in financial planning and management.
